

1902 - 16 Family at Admiral's House

Healthy air wanted for wife's TB

Monument to Eve, a 'blue baby', by Harry Furse (exh. 1891-1909 at BA).
This was J.H.H. Arise, brother of Charles Wellington Arise, painter (1882).

Hugh had interest in Cox's Bank

Mary (Mollie), née Grant, eldest of 3 sisters immortalised by Sargent, Augustus John and others. Her Hampstead salon included these artists and Säckert, Rothstein, Tonks, Dearbohm and Henry James.

(Inf. from Admiral's House)