

(Some biographical notes overleaf)

Daughter of Sir Henry G-B, arctic traveller and land-owner
(32,000 acres in Ireland alone).

Lived in Manchester and took active part in Women's Suffrage.
Climate drove her south.

Lived (and died) at 14 Frognal Gardens (eg 1926D)

Yeats poem in Oxford Book of 20th Century Verse:

'In memory of Eva Gore-Booth and Con Markiewicz'. (Countess Markiewicz was her sister, and a notorious Irish nationalist, much disliked by Sean O'Casey.)

WW lists 12 publications