

Edward Bell FSA , elder son of publisher George Bell

(father of Miranda Glanville of Greenhill)

Chairman of George Bell and Sons, whose local publications included Potter's Hampstead Wellal (Firm called Bell & Hymans till extant 1984)

He married Alice, daughter of Rev JW van Rees Hoets of Cape Colony

In 1890, he moved his family from Hampstead Hill Gardens to 6, The Mount.

Author of 'Architecture of Ancient Egypt' etc /www + M. Glanville

George Bell born Richmond. Lived in mansion with large garden, cows, hens, conservatory, summerhouse on site near Englands Lane. Moved to Bramerton, Hampstead Hill Gardens.

Edward Bell, President of the Publishers Assoc., shown in cartoons in Punch e.g. 17 October 1906

(Information from Miranda Glanville 14.11.84)

Edelweiss decoration on monument refers to accident on Matterhorn

George Bell lived at 28 Belsize Park Gardens 1849-60, Westcroft 1860-82 (when Eton Estate redeveloped the area), and Bramerton 1882-90. Buried in Highgate Cemetery. First employer and patron of Helen Allingham née Paterson.