

Winifred Gérin: Anna Thackeray Ritchie (OUP 1901)

p. 270 Sir Richmond Ritchie: 'Buried at Hampstead by his own wish to be near his adired friend George du Maurier'.
Permanent Under Secretary of State for India, KCB 1907

Anne: Elder daughter of Thackeray, and sister-in-law of Leslie Stephen. 1837 - 1919. Married her cousin, 15 years her junior.
Author of novels, but more especially of Biographical Introduction to Thackeray's complete works.
Wrote a record of her father's circle called Chapters from Some Memoirs, and The Life of Madame de Sévigné.

He died at 109 St George's Square. She died in Chelsea, 20 Feb. They married in 1877.

(Who was Who)