

Bayke's Peerage:

Bertodano is one of the ancient families of Spain; the gold chain on their crest commemorates the ancestors who fought the Moors in 1212 and broke their chain defences.

After the 5th Marquis married an Englishwoman and was Governor of Bank of England 1835/6, the family seems to have become anglicised.

Frederick the 8th Marquis was born in New South Wales and served with the Notts Yeomanry (Boer War, etc.). He married Ida in 1907 and in the 1930s lived at 43 Belsize Square.
