yard towards Church row;

Agreed That M<sup>r</sup> Vincent & M<sup>r</sup> Mael be desired to go to Chiswick with M<sup>r</sup> Henderson, and view the above said Palliades & gates, and if approved of, to bid for and purchase such parts as they shall think proper for the purpose aforesaid.

M<sup>r</sup> Oliver attended with a Design for a Font and Pedestal of Marble — to be oval-shaped one foot & half in width by 2 feet — & proposed the doing it in a very good Manner for twelve guineas or submit to a valuation —
and also to receive and set up a Chimney Piece and slab of Portland Stone on the living at 18<sup>0</sup> feet & 4 inches & Caulk of fire Stone at 12<sup>0</sup> p<sup>r</sup> foot supposed the whole value about five guineas.

Ordered That M<sup>r</sup> Oliver perform the same accordingly — Referred the contents of M<sup>r</sup> Maryens letter to further Consideration —
