

Robert Warren was rector of Hampstead 1735/40. Writer of sermons and other theological pamphlets.

See PARK, 228/32; KENNEDY 72/74 with picture; BARRATT, III, 71/2 with picture.

Park gives the tombstone inscription which was too worn for Millward to read, as follows:

"Here lieth the body of Robert Warren, Doctor of Divinity, late Rector of this parish, and of St. Mary-le-Bow, in Middlesex, who departed this life the seventh day of July, 1740, in the 61st year of his age.

"Also underneath y^e stone lieth the body of Mrs. Dorothy Warren, widow of the above-named Dr. Robert Warren, who departed this life on the 10th day of May, AD 1742, in the 73rd year of her age.

"Here lieth also the body of the Rev. Langhorne Warren, only son of the said Robert and Dorothy Warren, late minister of this parish, who died the 26th day of June, 1762, aged 51 years."

Park also gives a note: "Arms, Chequy Or and Azure, which occur again under Fletcher's print of Dr. Warren. The Doctor, I suppose, believed himself of the same family with the Warrens Earls of Surrey."

For Rev. Langhorne Warren, see BARRATT, I, 260, and III, 72, 75, 84. He was Vicar of Hampstead 1740 - 62 and, at the same time, Vicar of Dedham (Kennedy). The Parish Church was rebuilt during his vicarage.
