

Collins family farmed Wylde, probably from 1793. John was a small dairyman (c. 16 coxs) and the farm was known as Collins Farm. His name is scratched on a window at Wylde. He let rooms from at least 1823, when his lodger was John Linnell (see plaque on house)

Wylde - a New History: P. Venning