

West end: An inscription of about 8 lines, of which only part of the last line can be read:-

In the 7..... year of .....

---

Free translation by C. & D. WADE:

Her mother was Italian, her father was a Scot,
Though she was born in Africa, in England was her lot;
She left her home and parents for heaven's exalted charms,
Exchanged her brother, sisters, all, for angels' loving arms.