Presumably, 1783 is when the wife died.

1790-1800

DNS has a William Davy, who died 1780, who became Serjeant-at-law in 1759. He defended the runaway slave Sommersett against the claims of the slave owner in 1772.

1790-1800

Davy lived at Burgh House between 1768 and 1776. The Rate Books also show a Catherine Davy there.
