

The laven portuclived at 25 Church Row from 1819-1839
(says Oppé).

1819

Keats mentions having met them at a party (in a letter to George of 1819) and visiting their house.
later Devonports, described as an old Roman Catholic family, lived at 2 Church Row in the 1830s.

1819

1819

1819

1819

1819

1819

1819

1819

1819

1819