

Mrs Anne Bray offered her organ to the church in 1767, when the Trustees were desperate for one.

She played it there for the next 9 years and was voted £10 per annum for loan of it and £30 (later £40) per annum for playing and tuning it and paying the blower.

She died in 1776

Barratt III 84
Hampstead Annual 1905/6