

According to F. Buffard's authoritative biography of Castleden (Baptist Quarterly, July 1975), the minister died June 4 1854, aged 76. (James)

He came to Hampstead in 1817 and started Baptist services in the Holly Mount chapel the following year. He lived and died there.

