

C.J. Coates, China & Glass Warehouse, 33 High St in 1850 Directory.
Ditto in 1873 Directory, but also Registrar of Marriages and Rate Collector.
He was also Secretary of the Dispensary in New End for 27 years.
He built 26 Willoughby Road in 1883 and lived there until his death.
(G. Wain)

Elisabeth his wife took in lodgers, including in 1852 Ford Madox Brown.
He once had to vacate his back bedroom / studio because Mrs Coates was ill - perhaps being pregnant with William (born 1853).
