

Park p. 311: 'An eminent comedian and dancing-master, in the time of the second Charles and James. He wrote one dramatic piece which met with success ... The Devil of a Wife, or a Comical Transformation. a farce acted at the Theatre, Dorset Garden, 1686, 1693, 1695.'