

Watts was a builder / contractor: he lived at 15 Perrins Lane, which he built in 1880.

In 1899 L at this address, he is called 'sculptor' and an sponymous Watts lives at 114 Fitzjohns Avenue.

One may be his son (or grandson ?), who joined Potters agency in 1919 and stayed until 1974.