

F.G. Hinkley (senior), was a policeman who joined the General Strike and thereby lost his job. He lived at 14 Church Lane (later Perrins Lane) in the 1928 Directory.

He married his second wife, Christina Whiteman, in 1936, and moved into her house at 6 Perrins Lane.

"Young Fred" worked for the firm of George Hart, the builders.

