

George Sheringham lived at 106 Frogmal (1937 Directory)

Landscape and poster artist, illustrator, theatrical and textile designer. Studied Slade and Paris. Exhibited frequently at Brook St and Leicester Galleries and at Fine Art Society. Twice at R.A.

(Dictionary of British Artists)

Son of Rev. H.A. Sheringham, vicar to the King.

Inventor of Sheringham Daylight Shade. (?)
Decorator of rooms, e.g. Claridges, Wembley Greyhound Club.

Represented at Tate and provincial galleries.

(Who was Who)