

Articled to R.W. Edis.

In practice with Temple Moore (see I 84/85) and married his daughter, Mary, but not a blood relation.

Restored and built churches mainly in Northants and near the East Coast, also hospitals in South West, and way memorials. Designed several plaques for the Columbarium in 1812 yard (Information from daughter, Dionys Moore).