

Old Barcent, brother and heir to Sir Thomas ('the villainous lord of the Manor'), he came to terms with the Metropolitan Board of Works and sold them his rights in the Heath in 1871 for £15,000.

(1. Ikin, Hampstead Heath)

(The following is a list of the names of the persons who have been connected with the Heath since the year 1871.)

The names of the persons who have been connected with the Heath since the year 1871 are as follows: