

Henry

Worthy local resident, especially interested in education for the poor. Lived in Elm Row and later at Admiral's House (from 1865). Erected Hampstead's first drinking fountains
BARATT, II, 193, 195, 290/91; III, 2.

BAINES, 187/8. especially.

Local History Collection, illustration: LY/SARPE.

Eliza kept logbook to the age of 90 (book preserved in Local History Library). Her granddaughter Joan gave Sharpe Collection to LHC.

Daniel and his brother Samuel, banker and Egyptologist, are both in the DNB. They were partners, with their brother, Henry, in Portuguese mercantile business. Daniel wrote important papers on European geology, especially in Portugal.

See also London History Review 9, p. 2, for Sharpe family

Henry Sharpe married Eliza Kinder in 1834: perhaps XB 086 Eliza Kinder died 1864 aged 83 is her mother?