

Geoffrey Harris met in 1979 in the graveyard 2 descendants, Miss Rosalind and Miss Mary SMALLBY, of 52 Home Park Road, SW 19. They said that Cornwall SMALLBY had 16 children and nearly bankrupted himself on the building costs of St Matthew's Bayswater.

(See GH's letter in Churchyard File)

Cornwall Smalley I was senior officer in the first Hampstead Volunteers (see Barratt)

His obituary in the Gentleman's Magazine, Nov. 1800, says: 'A man of great wealth ... The gentlemen of the Hampstead monthly club⁺ will have great reason to regret the loss of a member ...' (CHS Newsletter July 1984)

+ Club could be Philo-Investigists founded 1781, or Hampstead Dinner Club founded 1784