

Vestry Minutes, 16.4.1805 and 27.11.1834: Mr. Rumsey left £1,000 invested in 3% Consolidated Bank Annuities in the care of four Trustees, "to lay out the annual interest of the same in the purchase of coal or other fuel to be distributed at Christmas in each year to such poor families, parishioners of the said parish, who frequent the established Church of England and who do not receive alms from the parish, as the said Trustees so to be chosen in their discretion shall deem most proper objects ..."

In the 1762 Survey, Rumsey has a sizeable property (including a chaise house) in the Pond Street quarter.
