Martha is presumably the Mrs Rowbotham (sic), widow, who owns a message in the High St in the 1762 Survey.

Francis Jonathon appears all over the 1840 Directory and must refer to the son (d. 1854), as the father was 80 then. (In fact F.J.R. the father is in the 1805-7 Holden Directory as watchmaker in the High St.

FJR junior's jobs, all in the High St., are: Watchmaker, Jeweller
