

William Westall, topographical painter (sample in the Tate Gallery)
 draughtsman to Matthew Flinders on his Australian expedition, busy illustrator of topographical works

(DNE)

Barratt says he painted several Hampstead scenes but no other local connection found.

In October 1985, a Westall view of Sydney was sold by Sotheby's there for £77,295.

WESTALL, WILLIAM (1781-1850) (DNE)

Also of Hampstead Westall
 son of the above
 born Oct 1781 died Jan 1850
 Also of Hampstead Westall
 son of the above
 born Oct 1781 died Jan 1850
 Also of Hampstead Westall
 son of the above
 born Oct 1781 died Jan 1850
 Also of Hampstead Westall
 son of the above
 born Oct 1781 died Jan 1850
 Also of Hampstead Westall
 son of the above
 born Oct 1781 died Jan 1850

WESTALL, WILLIAM (1781-1850) (DNE)

WESTALL, WILLIAM (1781-1850) (DNE)

WESTALL, WILLIAM (1781-1850) (DNE)