

Abraham was an Overseer of the Poor, 1750 (Vestry Minutes).
His wives are buried in AE 131 and 128.

Thomas (? his son) was a Churchwarden in charge of the Poor Rate, 1774.
1767 Survey shows a Mr Sibthorn (? Thomas) owning 2 adjacent houses in the High Street (? Nos 30 and 31), one described as "The King's Arms" Tavern, being the Dwelling House of the said Mr Sibthorp, with stables, large garden, summerhouse, etc."
